Eurovision Song Contest 2019 Dare to Dream

After Netta Barzilai's stunning win in last year's Eurovision Song Contest, Israel was the host for the 2019 competition.

A whole year of planning made it the "Event of the Year" and the results clearly show Israel's tremendous ingenuity, creativity and drive that made it an unforgettable event.

The "Euro Village" spread over an area of 15 acres, allowed tens of thousands of tourists and Israelis to enjoy Israeli entertainment and typical Israeli culinary delights during the week leading up to the contest.

Congratulations to Duncan Laurance, who represented The Netherlands, on his big win with his song "Arcade".

Traditionally dairy dishes are served, but this year we want to celebrate just a bit differently.

Since Tel Aviv is the vegan capital of the world, and Israel has the most vegans per capita of anywhere on earth, we decided to share a nondairy, vegan desert recipe with you.
