

Voluntouring in Israel

Do Good
Feel Good!

Volunteering in Israel is an excellent way of integrating and immersing yourself into the community and culture.

When you volunteer for the benefit of others, you attain the satisfaction of self-fulfillment and the knowledge that you have made a positive change.

Amiel Tours invites you to choose from a variety of volunteer options in the community based on your skills and interests. It is a great opportunity to discover up-close the amazing cultural and natural diversity that makes Israel the special country that it is.

Explore the country and gain unique travel experiences that will take you beyond the typical tour.

Turn your visit in Israel into a fantastic and meaningful journey that makes a real difference!

Fruit Picking with Leket

Leket Israel is the country's largest food bank and leading food rescue and delivery network. Leket Israel staff and volunteers enter fields and orchards at the end of the season's harvest to glean fruits and vegetables that will then be distributed all over the country to those in need.

Absorption Centers: New Beginnings

The Jewish Agency has planned, traveled with, welcomed with open arms and aided new immigrants (olim) in their integration into Israeli society. Absorption Centers offer transitional housing, lessons in Hebrew and preparation for life for new immigrant families and adults at the beginning of their new lives in Israel. Join us on a visit to an absorption center and meet olim in their new home and witness their first steps in the absorption process that will help them become fully engaged Israelis. Participate classes and meet a young immigrant who will share his or her story with you.
